Hi, John.

I did speak with Mr. Murdaugh on 3/22/18 when the claim was initially reported. I don't think it's a good idea to have Mr. Murdaugh give a deposition and I would object to it. Please keep trying to find an expert to give an opinion on life expectancy. I'm disappointed the first responders won't talk with us. I'm wondering if they might talk to an independent adjuster as opposed to an attorney. If you think they will, let me know and I'll hire an IA.

Thank you.

Amy,
The first responders are not willing to talk to us w/out a subpoena. They said discussing the claim with a lawyer who didn't serve them a subpoena violates HIPPA. Right or wrong, they won't talk to us at least right now. .

We have a call into two internists but I don't have a commitment yet from either to review the records. Orthopedics and neurologists seem to be easier to find than just a regular internist.

I spoke to Attorney Fleming to confirm the mediation date, and he said he wanted one of 2 things. He either wanted to take Alex Murdaugh's deposition or he wanted Alex to speak during the mediation and under the umbrella of confidentiality say what happened and what Ms. Satterfield allegedly said to him. Fleming said he has never heard Alex's explanation but I don't believe that. I smell a trap, but I'm not sure we can tell Alex that he can't speak at mediation.

I talked to Alex about it and he definitely doesn't want to give a deposition. Alex would like to talk to you prior to the mediation. He seems to think it is a big deal that the two of you haven't talked or you haven't heard his side of the story. I told him you have heard it from other sources but I would pass on his request.

Please let me know your thoughts. Take care
JG

Hi, John.

Let's get this to Dr. Pritchard as well as the doctor that we decide to retain to evaluate life expectancy. REDACTED. Have you identified an internist or nephrologist? Have you been able to set up the interviews with the first responders? 3/22/19 is going to be here faster than we know it.

Thank you. Have a great weekend.
